BIOGRAPHY

Jasneet Nagra joined Alexander Holburn as a summer student in May of 2024.

Jasneet is currently attending the University of Victoria Law and working as an amicus tutor. She has volunteered with the Justice Education Society of British Columbia, the South Asian Legal Clinic, and the University of Victoria Law Buddy program. Jasneet worked with Pro Bono Students Canada and the First Nations Justice Council to create a research paper regarding traditional law in British Columbia. She is also an event coordinator for the Pan-Asian Legal Society at the University of Victoria.

Prior to law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts, majoring in Criminology, at Simon Fraser University and worked as a file opening coordinator in a boutique real estate firm.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

During my free time, I enjoy exploring hiking trails in Vancouver and going for picnics or brunch with friends and family.
