

JENAYA
COPITHORNE
STUDENT

BIOGRAPHY

Jenaya Copithorne joined Alexander Holburn as an articling student in September 2024.

Throughout law school, Jenaya worked as a research assistant at the Canada Climate Law Initiative, examining trends in climate litigation, greenwashing regulation, and corporate disclosure of climate-related information. She also worked as a legal summer student at an energy utility in Vancouver, where she gained practical experience in municipal, administrative, and environmental law. Other highlights of her time in law school include volunteering with Pro Bono Students Canada and facilitating legal education workshops for high school students through the Law in Action Within Schools program.

Jenaya was the recipient of the 2023 Lawson Lundell LLP Prize in Securities Regulation and the 2022 Norman A.M. Mackenzie Scholarship for scholastic achievement.

Before attending law school, Jenaya completed a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations at UBC, graduating with high distinction

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her free time, Jenaya enjoys running, rowing, backpacking and creative writing.

PUBLICATIONS

EMAIL jcopithorne@ahbl.ca
TEL

---

EDUCATION

- J.D. 2024 University of British Columbia
  - B.A. 2020 University of British Columbia
-

- June 2022, “A New Dawn in Climate Disclosure: Comparing Canada’s Proposed National Instrument 51-107 with Proposed SEC Rules and IFRS/ISSB standards,” Canada Climate Law Initiative, Co-author
- March 2022, “Summary of Submissions to Canadian Securities Administrators on Proposed National Instrument 51-107 (Disclosure of Climate Related Matters),” Canada Climate Law Initiative, Co-author

PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY AFFILIATIONS

- Canadian Bar Association, Student Member

JENAYA
COPITHORNE
STUDENT