BIOGRAPHY

Juliana Ho is an Associate and a member of the firm's Insurance Practice Group.

Juliana maintains a broad insurance litigation practice, including professional liability, personal injury, construction and coverage disputes. She also has experience handling commercial litigation and employment matters.

Juliana has appeared in court in British Columbia and Alberta, including the Supreme Court of British Columbia and the Alberta Court of Kings Bench.

Juliana served as Co-Chair of the Student Chapter of the Canadian Bar Association at the University of Alberta for two years and contributed several articles to LawNow Magazine. While in law school, she worked as a Research and Writing Student at the Centre for Constitutional Studies and as a Writing Fellow at the University of Alberta Faculty of Law, where she facilitated legal research and writing seminars to first year law students. Her commitment to community service is evident through her volunteer work with Student Legal Services, Pro Bono Students Canada and Access Pro Bono, which are organizations dedicated to providing support to low-income individuals.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

In her spare time, Juliana enjoys trying new restaurants and traveling locally in British Columbia and Alberta, as well as internationally, to visit other countries.
